

Alice Schubele

Education Specialist in Education, Special Education, 2000, Georgia State University, Atlanta, Georgia
Masters in Education, Special Education, 1993, Georgia State University, Atlanta, Georgia
Bachelors of Science, Criminology, 1978, Florida State University, Tallahassee, Florida

Professional Experience “Exploring the Effects of Reading Mastery in Reading Skills in Children with Mild and Moderate Intellectual Disabilities”: a research project completed in conjunction with Dr. Marie Keel and Dr. Becky Wilson

Additional Professional Activities “Examining Prejudices and Myths surrounding Native Americans”: presented as a 10 hour workshop for teachers of elementary age children

“Exploring the Effects of Reading Mastery on Reading Skills in Children with Mild and Moderate Intellectual Disabilities”; presented at the Strategies for Success Conference, Georgia State University, 1999

“Reading Strategies for Children with Low Achieving Reading Skills”; presented as a 10 hour workshop for teachers of middle school age children, Richards Middle School, Gwinnett County Public Schools, 2001

“IDEA, 504, and NCLB: An Overview”; presented at Gwinnett County Public Schools, Richards Middle School Special Education Department, 2003

Project MARVEL(Mentor Assisted Research Validated Educational Literacy): trainer for Mentor teachers in Direct Instruction reading programs, 2006

Project LIBERATE: a research project with Georgia State University and the Department of Juvenile Justice in the Milledgeville Youth Center, assessor, 2008

Mentor for first year special education teachers for Gwinnett County Public Schools, 2001- 2018

Supervisor of practicum students from Georgia State University

Teaching Experience Georgia State University, spring 1999, “ Functional Life Skills”; fall 2000, “Direct Instruction Reading”; spring 2004; “Functional/Social Methods for BLD”; fall 2004 to spring 2016, “Instructional Methods for BLD”; “Introduction to Special Education”, Fall 2013 Atlanta Public Schools, 1993-2000; teacher of children with mild and moderate intellectual disabilities at D.H. Stanton Elementary, Ed. S. Cook Elementary, Walter White Elementary; created and piloted a team teaching model in conjunction with two other teachers of children with disabilities using Direct Instruction programs and homogeneous grouping across age and disabilities

Gwinnett County Public Schools, 2000- 2018; teacher of children with specific learning disabilities, other health impairments, speech and language disorders, autism spectrum disorders in a self contained setting, in a collaborative and team teaching model , Richards Middle School, Shiloh Middle School, Five Forks Middle School

Professional

Council for Exceptional Children, Division of Learning Disabilities
International Literacy Association

Awards Received

Teacher of the Year from the Atlanta area cluster for the Council for Exceptional Children, 1998-1999
Outstanding Alumnus Award, Georgia State University, 2007
Teacher of the Year, Richards Middle School, 2007-2008 school year
Marie C.Keel Award, In Recognition of Excellence in Supervision and Mentoring, 2016

Related Experiences and Interests

Summer 1998, North American Indian Alliance, Butte, Montana, Moke
Eaglefeathers (director), volunteer
1993-1994, Georgia Center for the Multihandicapped, Stephanie Dirst (director), volunteer
Volunteer reading tutor/mentor to Clarkston area refugees, 2010- present
Volunteer, Atlanta Botanical Gardens, currently