

College of Education & Human Development Continuous Enrollment Policy Waiver

Please complete the following:

Name: _____

Panther ID: _____

Student email: _____

Degree: _____

Major: _____

Submit this form, with your letter, plus the letter of support from your department, to:

Office of Graduate Student Services
College of Education & Human Development, Suite 300

Follow these steps to request a variance from the Continuous Enrollment Policy:

1. Complete this form.
2. Write a letter (not email) requesting a letter of support from your advisor and a letter (not email) from your department chair requesting a waiver of variance to the Continuous Enrollment Policy. Both letters should explain why the exception is needed and warranted, as well as the length of exception required. Be sure your letters include your name, Panther ID#, degree, and major. Please sign the letters.
3. Submit this form, your letter, and the letters of support from your department to: Graduate Student Services, Petitions & Appeals, College of Education & Human Development, Suite 300
4. In order to receive final review by the Dean of the Graduate School, your request will need to be approved by the CEHD Dean's Office. This committee meets weekly during each academic semester.

If approved, the CEHD Dean's office will draft a formal written request on your behalf and submit it to the Dean of the Graduate School (Dr. Lisa Armistead). Once received by that office, you will receive a formal reply within 10 business days from Dr. Lisa Armistead. Replies will be made to your official GSU email account.

If not approved by the CEHD Dean's office, you will receive an email notification from Graduate Student Services, and your letters will be returned to you. You may appeal this decision directly to the Dean of the Graduate School at grad@gsu.edu or at this address:
