

Center for Transnational and Multilingual Education 2021-2022 Webinars

Spaces to Explore: Lifting Up Student Identity in Bilingual Instruction

Sept. 26, 2021 | 6 p.m. | Register at bit.ly/CTMESept26Webinar

Presenters:

- Olivia Mulcahy, Educational Consultant, Illinois Resource Center
- Sam Aguirre, Director, WIDA Español; Assistant Director of Consortium Relations
- Jungmin Kwon, Assistant Professor, Michigan State University's Department of Teacher Education

Transcending Boundaries: Perspectives on Language, Literacy and Care with Multilingual Children

Oct. 24, 2021 | 6 p.m. | Register at bit.ly/CTMEOct24Webinar

Presenters:

- Jungmin Kwon, Assistant Professor, Michigan State University's Department of Teacher Education
- Laura Hamman-Ortiz, Assistant Professor, University of Northern Colorado's School of Teacher Education
- Gail Prasad, Assistant Professor, York University's Faculty of Education
- Sujin Kim, Assistant Professor, George Mason University's College of Education and Human Development

*Co-sponsored by the American Education Research Association –
Peace Education SIG*

On the Borderlands of Modality: Exploring Crip Linguistics

Jan. 23, 2022 | 6 p.m. | Register at bit.ly/CTMEJan23Webinar

Presenter:

- Jonathan Henner, Assistant Professor, University of North Carolina-Greensboro's Department of Specialized Education Services

Border Pedagogies for Teacher Development: Perspectives from Border Dwellers

March 6, 2022 | 6 p.m. | Register at bit.ly/CTMEMarch6Webinar

Presenters:

- Alcione Ostorga, Professor, University of Texas Rio Grande Valley's Department of Bilingual and Literacy Studies
- Kip A. Hinton, Associate Professor, University of Texas Rio Grande Valley's Department of Bilingual and Literacy Studies
- Christian E. Zúñiga, Assistant Professor, University of Texas Rio Grande Valley's Department of Bilingual and Literacy Studies

About the Center for Transnational and Multilingual Education

The Center for Transnational and Multilingual Education, housed in Georgia State University's College of Education & Human Development, provides research and evidence-based policies and procedures to educational professionals, assuring that educational systems are prepared to facilitate all students becoming multiple language learners who embrace global languages. For more information, click here.

