The College of Education & Human Development's Grant Development Workshop is designed to help participants develop and submit a grant proposal and to create a culture of peer support for grant development and implementation.

Participants will learn more about:

- Developing a timeline
- Creating a budget and budget narrative
- Preparing applications based on agency review processes
- Following Georgia State University grant procedures (e.g., routing, approvals, facilities and administrative waivers, etc.)

Time Commitment

Participants will meet Wednesdays from 10:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. on the dates listed below, and can participate in optional monthly writing sessions and group or individual feedback. Individual meetings will be scheduled as needed.
