Application Materials & Process:

Step 1: Complete College of Education & Human Development Application for Graduate Admission

➢ Go to https://gradapply.gsu.edu/apply/ to create an account as a first-time user

Step 2: Select the college, graduate program, and term for admission

➢ When selecting your program from the graduate application drop-down menu, be sure to select the College of Education & Human Development as your desired college, followed by the Teacher Support & Coaching Endorsement for the SUMMER 2022 term. Submit your application for graduate admission on or before the application deadline of May 1.

Step 3: Provide/attach the following to your application for graduate admission:

➢ Enter the name and contact information for one recommender – the recommender will be emailed upon submission of your graduate application to upload a letter of recommendation on your behalf.

➢ Submit official transcripts from each college/university attended. Please request your college/university submit your official electronic transcript to gradapplytranscripts@gsu.edu. If your college or university cannot provide a transcript electronically an official transcript must be mailed to:

Office of Graduate Admissions
Georgia State University
P.O. Box 4018
Atlanta, Georgia 30302

➢ Upload your resume, statement of goals, and current teaching certificate to your application under Applicant Documents.

➢ Verification of Lawful Presence. Each University System institution must verify the lawful presence in the United States of every person admitted to an institution. Review the Lawful Presence document to determine the acceptable forms of documentation to provide.
