Introduction to Library Research
Tuesday, Aug. 28 | 4-5:15 p.m. | CEHD 1025 (beginner)
Tuesday, Nov. 6 | 4-5:15 p.m. | CEHD 1025 (intermediate)

Denise Dimsdale will walk you through resources, services and tools offered by the library. Students are encouraged to bring a laptop for a more interactive session.

Endnote and Zotero
Wednesday, Sept. 12 | 4-5:15 p.m. | CEHD 1030 (Zotero)
Wednesday, Sept. 26 | 4-5:30 p.m. | CEHD 1025 (Endnote)

Denise Dimsdale and Joel Glogowski will present how and when to use citations using Endnote and Zotero – essential online tools to help you manage citations and organize your research.

Writing Studio
Thursday, Sept. 27 | 4-5 p.m. | CEHD 1030

Jessica Rose will cover tips for scholarly writing and how to avoid writing pitfalls with citations. Students who need help getting started on writing assignments or need someone to peer edit their work will also have the opportunity to connect with tutors and staff from the university’s Writing Studio.

Finding Balance Between Graduate School and Life/Counseling Services
Thursday, Oct. 4 | 3-4:30 p.m. | CEHD 1025

Jeana Griffith will highlight ways to read smarter, take notes more efficiently and other strategies when trying to fit it all in as a graduate student. She will also discuss counseling services available to graduate students in the university’s Testing and Counseling Center.

Financial Planning
Tuesday, Oct. 9 | 4-5 p.m. | CEHD 1025

Managing your finances can be difficult. Justin Henley will discuss managing your financial aid debt while in school and learning to create a budget that will help you to save long after you graduate.